

Town Council of Indian Head

Proclamation in Recognition of National Farmers Market Week

August 5 -11, 2018

Whereas, the State of Maryland and Charles County have a rich history of agricultural bounty; and

Whereas, farmers markets provide fresh, affordable, nutritious, and locally grown food to consumers and provide support to local artisans, vendors and businesses; and

Whereas, farmers markets positively contribute to the economic and social vitality of many communities; and

Whereas, the Town of Indian Head Farmers Market has brought the best in fresh produce and other locally grown products to our residents; and

Whereas, Maryland's farmers markets support and recognize the last full week in July as Buy Local Challenge Week, and challenges every resident to pledge to eat most items from a local farm for these seven days; and

Whereas, National Farmers Market Week and Buy Local Challenge Week are a great resource to residents and local businesses; and

Whereas, The United States Department of Agriculture recognizes August 5 through 11, 2018 as National Farmers Market Week, and encourages people of the United States to celebrate the benefits of farmers markets;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Mayor and Council of the Town of Indian Head, Maryland do hereby recognize August 5th through August 11th, 2018 as National Farmers Market Week.

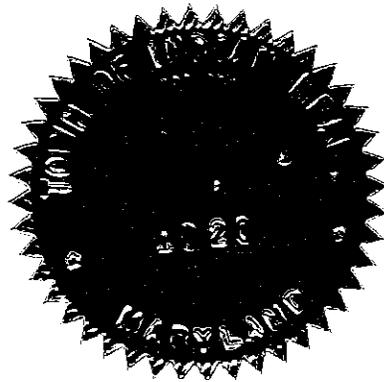

Signed this 2nd day of July, 2018

Brandon Paulin, Mayor

Ron Sitoula, Vice Mayor

Absent

Curtis Smith, Councilman

Attest by:

Andrea Brady, Town Clerk